

The Lord's Prayer

From a Single Adult's Perspective
By Pamela Kay Overbey

*Father, it's me again.
I know You are in heaven,
but I am so glad You can be everywhere.
I am so grateful that You always know where I am and what I am going through.
Many times, in the middle of the night, You are the only one
I can talk to.
I am thankful I know You personally.
I give You all the praise and honor for Who You are.
Thank You for all the wonderful things
You have done in my life.
I feel so blessed to be "one" of this great big family and to have wonderful friends.
I often pray for my will to be done and to have it my way, Please help me to accept Your will
and plan for my life.
I know your thoughts and ways far exceed anything I can ever think or imagine.
Will You supply my need for today, and help me not to worry about tomorrow?
I have read in Your Word,
"I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
nor his seed begging bread."
Forgive me for my failures and help me to forgive those who have hurt me.
Please do not let me fall into temptation, but deliver me from the anger, bitterness, loneliness and depression I sometimes feel.
I believe heaven is a real place.
I want to spend eternity with You there someday.
Your daughter,
Pamela Kay Overbey*
